

Hoovers & Their Ranch

Hoovers Ranch in Provo Canyon was lot by John Hoover Sr. John^{Jr} & Upton his brother run Hoovers flour mill at the corner of 2nd West & 5th North Provo where the armory now stands. They made flour & flour products for most of Utah co. Their father John owned in it too. He lived at 4th West & 4th West Provo. They lot land in Provo Canyon above Sprays Flat on Provo River, John Jr. lived there with his wife Hazel Carter Hoover.
Glen another brother built a house east of him and Ferris & his wife Lillian Taylor Hoover lived in the house south of him.
They run cattle in the hills above them and it has been a successful operation for years.
They have raised their families there, and have been part of Charleston ward in the Heber area.
These families and my mothers family lived within a block of each other on 4th West. Mothers family in the 3rd North block and thiers in the 4th North block. John Hoover Sr. house is torn down on 4th West & 4th North, but John Jr. house is still beautiful and lived in on 4th West & 5th North Corner. Jean another brother has always had Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothing store. Reed another brother lives in Salt Lake and Roy & Ralph were twins living in Provo.
They had one sister Maggie who married Don Davis, a cousin of mine. Burdell Davis son. The Hoovers have been a prominent family in Provo. And always well liked. I went thru school with Jean. One time I jumped the ditch at school & sprained my ankle, He went home & got his red wagon to take me home in. He visited me until I was well

History of the Parish

The history of the parish is a story of growth and development. It begins with the early settlers who came to this land in search of a better life. They found a place of beauty and tranquility, and they built a home for themselves. Over the years, the parish has grown in size and in the number of its people. It has become a place where people of many different backgrounds and beliefs have found a home. The parish has a rich history of service to its people, and it continues to do so today. It is a place where people can find a sense of community and belonging. The parish is a testament to the power of faith and the strength of the human spirit. It is a place where people can find hope and inspiration. The history of the parish is a story of faith and courage, and it is a story that we can all be proud of.
